Please indicate the main aspects of your mobility proposal.
The mobility programme proposed must coherently describe the existing relation between the activities you develop and those you intend to develop at the host institution. This mobility programme will be used as a mean for the host institution to evaluate the relevance and interest in its implementation. The final mobility proposal will be, in case of selection, articulated and defined by the scholarship holder, the coordinating and the host institution and, in specific cases, the home institution.

8. Proposed host universities

To enhance your chances of being selected we advise you to select up to three host institutions. However, partner institutions might only consider the applicants that selected them as first option, rejecting the other applications.
You must carefully select the institution(s) having into consideration the following aspects:
- Field of studies/work
- Language used (you must make sure you fill in the necessary language minimum requirements and, in case the host institution demands so, you have to upload the certificate of language proficiency in section 10)
- Minimum eligibility requirements
- Duration of mobility (it can be different from one institution to another)
